

CRIN 2021 technology competition benefits

Application requirements include:

- Environmental benefits
- Public benefits (economic and ecosystem development)
- Innovator + producer partnership (demonstrate industry pull)
- CRIN membership

Project outcomes must include benefits in each of the following areas:

- Positive cumulative environmental impacts
 - Reduction of environmental footprints and GHG emissions
 - Increased energy efficiency
 - Conservation of national resources
 - Land reclamation and water use
 - Improved ecology and biodiversity
- Economic benefits to Canada
 - Job and business creation
 - Increased competitiveness
 - New sales, revenue, commercial opportunities
 - Attract new investment
 - Growth of domestic market and global export
 - Development of new processes/products
- Public benefit
 - Development of highly skilled workforce
 - Improved health and safety
 - Energy security
 - Embodiment of equity, diversity and inclusivity
- Ecosystem/innovation development
 - Market disruption and breakthrough technology potential
 - Knowledge transfer
 - Technology commercialization
 - New and incremental collaboration